Quinton Utley's Tooth-Ache Drops.

FOR THE CURE OF THE TOOTHACHE

One of the Greatest Discoveries of the 19th Century!

FROM the numerous applications I have had for the above preparation, for the last few months, the uniform success which has attended its use, its salutary effects, its power to give immediate relief in the severest cases of Toothache, I have been induced to offer it to those who may be afflicted; with the utmost confidence in its virtue, and the full belief that it will subdue and give entire relief to the severest toothache without the slightest injury to the tooth. I have got (and can get,) numerous testimonials of its efficacy—some from distinguished gentlemen, and all from as reliable persons as are in the State, a publication of which I deem unnecessary at this time, as one of these Drops when tried in an aching tooth will be worth more to the manufacturer and the patient, than all the certificates from great men that could be procured.

The preparation is known only to myself. Every phial is carefully put up by my own hands in the City of Raleigh and labelled with directions for use, and may be found at IRA BECKWITH'S Store, on Fayetteville St. a few doors North of the Yarbrough House, and opposite Lawrence's Hotel, where it will be constantly kept for sale either by the wholesale or retail. Also for sale by the retail at Jone's Drug Store, Sycamore street, Petersburg, Va., and at Andrew Bett's Store, Wake County, N. C. Retail price 50 cts per Bottle—liberal deduction made when taken by the quantity.

To all who may have the toothache—try it, and then it will need no puffing.

All orders from a distance promptly attended to by Mr. Beckwith or myself.

QUINTON UTLEY.

Raleigh, September 7, 1852. 86—1y.

TO MERCHANTS.—IMPORTANT AND TRUE. The fact, that merchants can supply their wants in their home markets, and thus save the trouble and expense of a northern trip, being fully established, the subscribers, in anticipation of a large demand for their popular Ready Made Clothing, have manufactured an unusually large stock, which, they may safely say, has never been surpassed, if it has been equalled, in the southern market.

Encouraged by the very liberal patronage hitherto received, and with largely increased facilities, we are determined to keep pace with the onward spirit of the age, and to use every honorable effort to deserve our share of the "public distribution." Merchants visiting Petersburg, whether dealing in Clothing or not, are invited to visit our WHOLESALE ROOMS, now stocked with every variety of Clothing, of our own manufacture, the most modern styles, and at New York prices.

Mr. Wynne said that the act he wished to repeal was a starvation act to several hundred persons of Hyde, who lived near the inlets and derived subsistence from them by fishing; that it was a hardship to those poor people to benefit the rich fishermen on the Roanoke. The act not only prevented them from fishing with seins, but even with set or drag nets; and he wondered that even the hook and line had not been prohibited. The fishing interest of the rivers did not require any such law, as more fish passed up them than could be caught and consumed.

On motion of Mr. Spruill, the bill was then referred to a select committee to consist of seven.

NORTH CAROLINA.

BY C. H. BRACKETTE.

It is exceedingly difficult for a stranger in writing of a community or commonwealth, to do full justice for lack of a sufficient degree of knowledge of minute traits of character; but if he have an entire acquaintance with a people, and is disposed to be fully truthful he can give a more reliable description than he could if possesed of the prejudice which birth and long residence invariably give the mind to some extent.

Many years since, while at school 'mid the flowery daisies of the West, the writer first read the lines of William Gaston, entitled "The Old North State," and then determined, if circumstances would permit, to visit "Carolina" at some period of life, and judge for himself. His parents had early told him that North Carolina was indeed "first in revolutionary story," and from the excellent specimens from the State he had seen, he had formed a high estimate of the moral and mental worth of her daughters and sons, so that in visiting the State he came not with one sentiment towards its people than those of real respect. It is true, that when advised by an accomplished daughter of Carolina, whom he met at Marion, Va., in the spring of 1851, to visit "the old North State," he replied thoughtlessly that the Lord Morpeth had written that, for sandy roads and plenty of length to same, the State could beat the world; but it was only an old remark, and had no especial malice so far as the mind of the writer was concerned.

In reference then to the subject. If inquired of as to the leading trait of a true Carolinian, the reply would spring to lips most promptly—kindness. In all the manner and matter which make up true hospitality and good breeding, the people of the State excel, and long will one out of many grateful minds remember this.

The ladies of Carolina are as kind and truthful as any of the sex can be, and in manner, tone of voice and cordial greeting, excel; while of the gentlemen it is not too much to say that they are as civil, as obliging, and as good as is necessary. In generosity and in courage they are of a high tone. Let the stranger just visit schools and colleges in the State, and he will see specimens of sound sense, uprightness and perseverance combined in the character which produces good fruit.

There is in the character of the young as of the aged a patriotism, a love of their natal land which is strong indeed, although many are from year to year seeking homes mid the richer lands of the West where the fidelity and perseverance displayed is productive of the most glorious results.

In North Carolina the stranger soon feels that he has found those of kindred feelings, and the warm friendships which spring up and continue are evidence of the fact.

There are other lands to which nature may have been more partial, but not one which will be longer remembered by the writer. Weekly Post.

MILK BISCUITS. A quarter of a pound of butter, one quart of milk, one gill of yeast, as much flour as will form the dough; and a little salt. Stir flour into the milk so as to form a very thick batter, and add the yeast; this is called a sponge. This should be done in the evening; in the morning cut up the butter, and set it near the fire where it will dissolve, but not get hot; pour the melted butter into the sponge, then stir in enough flour to form a dough, knead it well and stand it away to rise. As soon as it is perfectly light, butter your tins, make out the dough in small cakes, and let them rise. When they are light, bake them in a very quick oven, take them out, wash the tops over with water, and send them to the table hot.

A resolution was offered and passed, authorizing the President to appoint a Committee consisting of eleven, to report a Constitution and By-Laws, at next meeting on Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock, for the government of this association; when the following gentlemen were appointed by the President, to wit:

Mr. Spruill, of Bertie, asked the consideration of the following resolution, to wit:

Resolved, That it be recommended to the farmers of the different Counties in North Carolina, to form agricultural societies in their respective counties; and we do cordially invite them to send delegates to the next meeting of the State Agricultural Association, to unite with us in endeavoring to awaken the people to the importance of agricultural improvement.

Which, after some discussion on the great benefit to be derived to the best interests of the State, in fostering and encouraging county societies, was unanimously adopted.

When the Society adjourned to meet to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The foregoing resolution was introduced, and advocated by Mr. Taylor of Wake, and at the request of several members, postponed for future consideration.

On motion it was

Resolved, That all the newspapers of the State friendly to the objects of this Association, be requested to publish these proceedings.

The Association then adjourned to meet again at the regular annual meeting, in the City of Raleigh, next October, at which time and place a State Fair of all industrial pursuits will be held, and all the members are expected to attend.

A MEMORIAL.

To the Honorable, the General Assembly of North Carolina:

Your Memorialists respectfully shew, that on Monday, the 18th day of October, 1852, there was formed in the City of Raleigh, a State Agricultural Society, composed of Delegates representing County Associations, and of citizens from different parts of the State all interested in the great cause of Agriculture, the leading interest of North Carolina: That the Society was duly organized on a permanent basis, officers elected, and a constitution and by-laws adopted; and that this Association, whose object is the advancement of the industrial interests of the Commonwealth, having made an auspicious beginning, it was deemed important to its continued existence and success that it receive the contenance and support of the State: it was, therefore, resolved to memorialize your honorable body, on the justice and expediency of an appropriation from the State Treasury, to promote those objects; and the undersigned were appoined a committee to draft said Memorial.

In obedience to said resolution, your Memorialists respectfully solicit the attention of your honorable body, to this interesting subject, and earnestly request your favorable consideration of the same.

They would respectfully represent, that the cause of agriculture has, heretofore, been in a languishing condition in North Carolina—that it has been too much neglected by men of science, and that with a climate and soil unsurpassed, our beloved State has taken a humiliating position in the rear of her sisters in Agricultural and Industrial improvement.

They would farther represent and allege, that one great cause of this is the neglect by the State, of her farming interest and the interests of her laboring classes, and that since her existence as a distinct sovereignty, North Carolina, absorbed in federal politics and seemingly unmindful of her true interests, has never encouraged by example, by bounties or special legislation, competition and skill in the development of her great Agricultural resources.

And your Memorialists farther allege that, in modern countries, our career as a State is, in this respect, without an example or parallel; and that we have arrived at a period when a change is imperatively demanded by the honor and the welfare of the State, and by the increasing wants and necessities of the times.

And as a farther reason for a change in this respect your Memorialists respectfully represent that there are visible signs of an awakening among our people—that they are beginning to appreciate their natural advantages, to deplore their backwardness in industrial improvements and to seek for means to retrieve the neglect of former years. At such a crisis, the example of the public authorities can be made very effective for good; and a State Agricultural Society properly endowed, can give a powerful impetus to the forward movement, by begetting and fostering a general rivalry in the race of improvement, by diffusing valuable information, by enchancing the dignity of labor, and of science directed to the most important pursuits of man, by adding also more interest, excitement and pleasure to this calling in the eyes of those who follow it, by breaking down the barriers of sectional prejudices that divide our citizens, bringing them together, in pleasant association, from the east, the west, the north and the south and thereby adding to their knowledge of the products and people of different sections of their own commonwealth; and by helping to create and stimulate to a healthful vigor, proper feelings of State pride, and interest in North Carolina as one undivided State of various interests and abounding resources, true to itself and devoted to the welfare of its inhabitants.

The farmers and mechanics compose the majority of the consituents of your honorable body—their prosperity is the prosperity of our common State, and now amid the din of politics, they venture to appeal to your honorable body for a slight exertion of authority in their behalf.

A small appropriation will give enduring vitality to our institution, giving great promise of usefulness to them and to us all; and such an appropriation will be returned with ten-fold interest in the taxes collected from a prosperous community, with means and resources multiplied by your liberality. Without such an appropriation, the State Agricultural Society, so auspiciously organized, may come to a premature end, thus adding to the gloom that surrounds us, and giving new force to the sad vaticinations of those who assert that every enterprise must prove a failure in North Carolina. And your memorialists as in duty bound, &c., &c.

FUNERAL OF MR. WEBSTER.

Ceremonies of Burial at Marshfield—Great Concourse of Citizens.

BOSTON, Friday, October 29, 1852.

The reporter has just returned from Marshfield. Mr. Webster's funeral was attended by at least 10,000 persons, among them, General Franklin Pierce, Gov. Marcy, of N. Y., Hon. Abbott Lawrence, Hon. Edward Everett, Hon. Charles Ashmun, Governor Boutwell, Ex-Chancellor Jones, of N. Y., Judge Sprague, and many other distinguished men. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Alden, the parish Orthodox clergyman—they were very simple, consisting of a short address and prayer.

Mr. Webster was buried on his own grounds with his wife and children.

[Second Dispatch.]

BOSTON, Friday, Oct. 29.

The last sad rites over the body of Mr. Webster were solemn and imposing. The vast multitude stood uncovered, and apparently joined sincerely in the funeral ceremonies. Rev. Mr. Alden commenced by reading an appropriate extract from the Bible, after which he pronounced, with great feeling, the following address:

On an occasion like the present, a multitude of words were worse than idle. Standing before that majestic form, it becomes ordinary men to keep silence. He being dead, yet sleepeth. In the words he applied to Washington, in the last great public discourse he ever delivered, "The whole atmosphere is redolent of his name. Hills and forests, rocks and rivers, echo and reecho his praises." All the good, whether learned or unlearned, high or low, rich or poor, feel this day that there is one treasure committed to them all, and that is the fame and character of Webster—to recount his deeds, ponder over his principles and teachings, and resolve to be more guided by them in future. Americans by birth are proud of his character, and exiles from foreign shores are eager to participate in admiration of him; and it is true that he is this day every where more an object of love and regard than on any day since his birth—and while the world, too prone to worship mere intellect, laments that the orator and statesman is no more, we enter on more sacred ground, and dwell upon the example and counsel of a Christian as a husband, father, friend. I trust it will be no rude wounding of the spirit—no intrusion upon the privacy of domestic life, to allude to a few circumstances in the last scenes of the mortal existence of that great man who is gone, fitted to administer Christian consolation, and guide to a better acquaintance with that religion which is adapted both to temper our grief and establish our hopes. Those who were present on the morning of the Sabbath upon which this head of a family conducted the worship of his household, will never forget, as he read from our Lord's sermon on the Mount, the emphasis which he alone was capable of giving to that passage which speaks of the divine nature of forgiveness, saw beaming from that eye, now closed in death, the spirit of him who first uttered that god-like sentiment. And he who, by the direction of a dying man upon a subsequent morning of the day of rest, read in their connection these words: "Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief;" and the closing chapter of our Savour's last words to his disciples, being particularly requested to dwell upon this clause of the verse: "Holy Father, keep, through thine own name, those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one as we are." Behold a sublime illustration of the indwelling and abiding power of Christian faith! and if these tender remembrances only cause our tears to flow more freely, it may not be improper for us to present the example of the father, when his heart was rent by the loss of a daughter whom he most dearly loved. Those present on the occasion well remember, when the struggle of mortal agony was over, retiring from the presence of the dead, bowing together before the presence of God, and joining with the afflicted father, as he poured forth his soul, pleading for grace and strength from on high, as upon the morning of his death. We conversed upon the evident fact that, for the last few weeks, his mind had been engaged in preparation for an exchange of worlds. One who knew him well remarked: "His whole life has been that preparation." The people of this rural neighborhood, among whom he spent the last twenty years of his life, among whom he died and with whom he is to rest, have been accustomed to regard him with mingled veneration and love. Those who knew him best can the most truly appreciate the lessons, both from his lips and example, teaching the sustaining power of the gospel. His last words, "I still live," we may interpret in a higher sense than that in which they are usually regarded. He has taught us how to attain the light of faith and the life to come. Vividly impressed on the memory of the speaker is the instructions onee received as to the fitting way of presenting the divine truth from the sacred desk. Would that its course might be felt by those who are called to minister in divine things. Said Mr. Webster, "When I attend upon the teachiugs of the gospel, I wish to have it made a personal matter—a person al matter—a personal matter."

It is to present him as enforcing the divine lessons of wisdom and consolation, that we have recalled to your minds these precious recollections, and we need utter no apology; indeed we should be inexcusable in letting the present opportunity pass without unveiling the inner sanctuary of the life of the foremost man of all this world, for his most intimate friends are well awaae that he has had it in mind to prepare a work on the internal evidences of Christianity, as a testimony of his heartfelt conviction of the divine reality of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, but finding himself rapidly approaching those august scenes of immortality into which he had so often looked, he dictated the most important part of his epitaph, and so long as the rock shall guard his rest, and the ocean sound his dirge, the world shall read upon his monument not only "one of the few, the immortal names which were not born to die," but that Daniel Webster lived and died in the Christian faith. The delineation which he gave of one of his early and noble compeers, could never have been written except from experimental acquaintance with that which he holds up as the chief excellence of his friend. This description we shall apply to himself, trusting that it will be as well understood as admired: "Political eminence and professional fame fade away and die with all things earthly. Nothing of character is really permanent but virtue and personal worth; these remain. Whatever of excellence is wrought into the soul itself, belongs to both worlds. Real goodness does not attach itself merely to this life. It points to another world. Political or professional reputation cannot last forever, but conscience, void of offence before God and Man, is an inheritance for eternity. Religion is therefore a necessary and indispensable element in any great human character. There is no living without it. Religion is the tie that connects man with his Creator and holds him to his throne. If that tie be sundered, all broken, he floats away, a worthless atom in the universe, its proper attraction all gone, its doctrines and its whole future nothing but darkness, desolation and despair. A man with no sense of religious duty is he whom the Scripture describes in such terse but terrific language, "as living without God in the world"—such a man is out of his proper being—out of the circle of all his duties—out of the circle of all his happiness—away, far, far, far away from the purposes of his creation."

A mind like Mr. WEBSTER's, active, thoughtful, penetrating, sedate, could not but meditate deeply on the condition of man below, and feel its responsibilities. He could not look on this mighty system, this universal frame, without feeling that it was created and upheld by an intelligence to which all other intelligence must be held responsible. I am bound to say, that in the course of my life I never met with an individual in any profession or condition, who always spoke and always thought with such awful reverence of the power and presence of God. No irreverence, no lightness, even no too familiar allusions to God and His attributes, ever escaped his lips. The very notion of a Supreme Being was, with him, made up of awe and solemnity. It filled the whole of his great mind with the strongest emotion. A man like him, with all his proper sentiments and sensibilities alive in him, in this state of existence has something to believe and something to hope for; or else, as life is advancing to its close, all is heart-sinking and oppression. Depend upon it, whatever may be the mind of an old man, old age is only really happy when it begins to lay a strong hold on the realities of another world. Mr. WEBSTER's religious sentiments and feelings were the crowning glories of his character.

At 9 o'clock the body had been removed from the library to the lawn in front of the mansion, and placed on a bier, beneath one of the large poplar trees. From this hour up to 1½, the thousands present encircled around, and took a last view. The countenance was serene and life-like. Two garlands of oak leaves and acrons, and two bouquets of flowers, were placed on the coffin. Many shed tears, and grieved for the loss, as of a departed father or dear friend. The solemnities closed at the mansion at 1½, when the funeral cortege proceeded to the tomb, about a half mile distant.

There were no ladies in the procession, and no carriages, but so great was the length that scarcely two-thirds had left the house when the body reached the tomb. Here the procession passed round the coffin, the lid of which was open—and at precisely half-past two o'clock the tomb closed on the mortal remains of DANIEL WEBSTER.

The crowd of mourners then slowly departed.

Secretary CONRAD was the only member of the Cabinet present.

Rev. Mr. ALDEN closed the services at the mansion by an eloquent prayer, and at the tomb he also briefly and appropriately addressed the Throne of Divine Grace.

The entire proceedings were appropriate, solemn and affecting.

MR. WEBSTER ON THE EVIDENCES OF CHRISTIANITY. A few evenings since, sitting by his own fireside, after a day of severe labor in the Supreme Court, Mr. Webster introduced the last Sabbath's sermon, and discoursed in animated and glowing eloquence for an hour on the great truths of the Gospel. I cannot but regard the opinions of such a man in some sense as public property. This is my apology for attempting to recall some of those remarks which were uttered in the privacy of the domestic circle.

Said Mr. Webster: "Last Sabbath I listened to an able and learned discourse upon the evidences of Christianity. The arguments were drawn from prophecy, history, with internal evidence. They were stated with logical accuracy and force; but, as it seemed to me, the clergyman failed to draw from them the right conclusion. He came so near the truth that I was astonished that he missed it. In summing up his arguments, he said the only alternative presented by these evidences is this: Either Christianity is true, or it is a delusion produced by an excited imagination. Such is not the alternative, said the critic; but it is this. The Gospel is either true history, or it is a consummate fraud; it is either a reality or an imposition. Christ was what he professed to be, or he was an impostor. There is no other alternative. His spotless life in his earnest enforcement of the truth, his suffering in its defence, forbid us to suppose that he was suffering an illusion of a heated brain.

Every act of his pure and holy life shows that he was the author of truth, the advocate of truth, the earnest defender of truth, and the uncompromising sufferer for truth. Now, considering the purity of his doctrines, the simplicity of his life, and the sublimity of his death, is it possible that he would have died for an illusion? In all his preaching the Saviour made no popular appeals. His discourses were all directed to the individual. Christ and his Apostles sought to impress upon every man the conviction that he must stand or fall alone—he must live for himself and die for himself, and give up his account to the omniscient God, as though he were the only dependent creature in the universe. The Gospel leaves the individual sinner alone with himself and his God. To his own master he stands or falls. He has nothing to hope from the aid and sympathy of associates. The deluded advocates of new doctrines do not preach. Christ and his Apostles, had they been deceivers, would not have so preached.

If clergymen in our days would return to the simplicity of the Gospel, and preach more to individuals and less to the crowd, there would not be so much complaint of the decline of true religion. Many of the ministers of the present day take their text from St. Paul, and preach from the newspapers. When they do so, I prefer to enjoy my own thoughts rather than to listen. I want my pastor to come to me, the spirit of the Gospel, saying, 'You are mortal; your probation is brief; your work must be done speedily; you are immortal too. You are hastening to the bar of God; the Judge standeth before the door.' When I am thus admonished, I have no disposition to muse or to sleep. "These topics," said Mr. Webster, have often occupied my thoughts, and if I had time I would write on them myself."

The above remarks are but a meagre and imperfect abstract, from memory, of one of the most eloquent sermons to which I ever listened.

Congregational Journal.

"I CANNOT SWIM." This was the agonizing ejaculation of hundreds as they let themselves down into the water from the Henry Clay. I cannot swim! What a terrible thought to one on board a burning vessel! We can imaging nothing more so. The idea that you must sink down helpless, hopeless, into the dark sullen waters, and have them close over you for ever is the most horrid of all conceivable things. How different from one who leaps in perfect confidence into the deep, sinks for a moment beneath the surface, comes up, throws the water from his locks and strikes out boldly for the shore. He laughs at danger, and saves his life, amid the agony and tears of hundreds, who sink to rise no more. We do not know how we should have acted or felt, had we been on board the Henry Clay, but we can swim a dozen times around her hull, as she lies, and do not believe we would have felt any more danger of drowning than, when a boy, we threw ourselves in sport from the dock.

We cannot remember the time when we could not swim, and we owe it to a mother who was not afraid to have a child out of the reach of her hand before he was of age. We early learned self-dependence and the old Yankee maxim, "Take care of yourself," and these have availed us in many emergencies and dangers.

Every boy and girl should learn to swim. It costs nothing, not even trouble, and is worth more than all the Latin and music ever learned. A good swimmer is not likely to be frightened out of his senses and in cases of imminent danger his services are available in more ways than one. By all means learn to swim. New York Day Book.

BUILDING ON THE SAND.

BY ELIZA COOK.

'Tis well to woo, 'tis well to wed,
For so the world hath done
Since myrtles grew, and roses blew,
And morning brought the sun.

But have a care, ye young and fair—
Be sure ye pledge with truth—
Be certain that your love will wear
Beyond the days of youth;

For, if ye give not heart for heart,
As well as hand for hand,
You'll find you've played the 'unwise' part,
And "built upon the sand."

'Tis well to save, 'tis well to have
A goodly store of gold,
And hold enough of the shining stuff—
For charity is cold.

But place not all your hope and trust
In what the deep mine brings;
We cannot live on yellow dust
Unmixed with purer things.

And he who piles up wealth alone,
Will often have to stand
Beside his coffer-chest, and own
'Tis "built upon the sand."

'Tis good to speak in kindly guise,
And soothe where'er we can;
Fair speech should blind the human mind,
And love

THE GLORIOUS RESULT!

A great blow has been struck by the millions of America for the Union, for the Constitution, for a cessation of the pernicious agitation on Slavery questions, and for the time-honored Republican principles of Jefferson and Jackson.

FRANKLIN PIERCE is President elect of the United States by an overwhelming majority.

The great States of Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York have thrown their immense weight on the side of the Republican candidates; and they have been joined in this noble work by all the States, in all probability, except Vermont, Massachusetts, and Kentucky!

The following States have certainly, it is thought, voted for Pierce and King:

| | |
|---|---|
| New York, | 35 votes. |
| Pennsylvania, | 27 " |
| Ohio, | 23 " |
| Maine, | 8 " |
| Virginia, | 15 " |
| N. Hampshire, | 5 " |
| Rhode Island, | 4 " |
| Connecticut, | 6 " |
| New Jersey, | 7 " |
| Delaware, | 3 " |
| Maryland, | 8 " |
| North Carolina, | 10 " |
| South Carolina, | 8 " |
| Georgia, | 10 " |
| Florida, | 3 " |
| Indiana, | 13 " |
| Illinois, | 11 " |
| Iowa, | 4 " |
| Wisconsin, | 5 " |
| Michigan, | 6 " |
| Missouri, | 9 " |
| Alabama, | 9 " |
| Louisiana, | 6 " |
| Mississippi, | 7 " |
| Arkansas, | 4 " |
| Texas, | 4 " |
| California, | 4 " |
| Tennessee, | 12 " |
| | 266 |

And the following States, it is thought, have certainly voted for Scott and Graham:

| | |
|---|---|
| Vermont, | 5 votes. |
| Massachusetts, | 13 " |
| Kentucky, | 12 " |
| | 30 |

Behold the result! Forward! Scott leads in Vermont, and Vermont heads the column!

It may be, however, that Scott and Graham have carried some one or two of the States included in our calculation for Pierce and King; but Whigs here are claiming only Vermont, Massachusetts, and Kentucky.

Comments hereafter.

NORTH CAROLINA.

We give, in our table in another column, the returns from twenty-one Counties, from which it will be seen the clear Scott gain compared with the August vote, is 1,379.

We have rumors of Scott gains in Martin, Northampton, Chatham, Guilford, and Rowan; and rumors of Pierce gains in Brunswick and Duplin. We have heard nothing from Clingman's District, and but little from Outlaw's and Caldwell's Districts.

The returns in this State, it is known, come in very slowly. We shall have enough, in all probability, by the Western Mail of to-night to enable us to announce with certainty the result. We believe we have carried the State, and we have accordingly, in our list of States, counted the ten Electoral votes of North Carolina for Pierce and King.

WAKE COUNTY.

The following is the vote of Wake County, by Precincts, at the election held on Tuesday last:

| | Pierce. | Scott. |
|---|---|---|
| Raleigh, | 283 | 378 |
| Rolesville, | 134 | 18 |
| Laws', | 121 | 57 |
| Busbees, | 51 | 65 |
| Banks', | 72 | 32 |
| Barney Jones', | 123 | 9 |
| Nat. Jones', | 54 | 6 |
| Joel Jones', | 63 | 6 |
| Cottrells', | 85 | 9 |
| Upchurches, | 55 | 20 |
| Weatherspoons', | 40 | 15 |
| Hayes', | 36 | 21 |
| Lynns', | 16 | 48 |
| Sims' X Roads, | 17 | 13 |
| Oak Grove, | 26 | 48 |
| Dunnville, | 38 | 20 |
| Ridgeway, | 3 | 26 |
| Forestville, | 35 | 52 |
| Eagle Rock, | 28 | 157 |
| Wakefield, | 38 | 15 |
| Spikes', | 39 | 17 |
| | 1357 | 1032 |
| | 1032 | |
| | 325 | |

THE ELECTION.

With the setting of to-day's (Tuesday's) sun, the struggle will be ended. This day a great people will determine whether they still retain the virtues of their forefathers, or have lapsed into that decadence of the manlier sentiments of the American bosom which can permit a brave and faithful old soldier to be beaten down by calumny and slander.—Register.

We copy the foregoing from the Register issued on the day of the election.

The answer is, three or four States out of thirty-one for Scott, and all the rest for that "blue-nose" and "obscure yankee," FRANKLIN PIERCE.

The deed has indeed been done! and, according to the Register, this "great people" do not "retain the virtues of their forefathers"! Oh naughty people! oh calamitous result! Is not the Register a prophet? More anon.

☞ Vermont seems to be conceded to General Scott, though the returns are not in. We believe it requires a majority of all the votes in that State to cast its Electoral vote; and we have heard the wish expressed that no one may get a majority—that the matter of the Electoral vote may be referred for decision to the Legislature, and that that body may postpone indefinitely.

Vermont, be it remembered, is the only State which has deliberately nullified the fugitive-slave law.

In PENNSYLVANIA, the majority for Pierce and King is about twelve thousand.

In NEW YORK, the Democratic majority is also large. Ten Whigs and twenty three Democrats (including Mike Walsh,) have been elected to Congress.

In MASSACHUSETTS, the Scott and Graham ticket has a majority of 7,300.

In Indiana, Pierce's majority is 20,000; in Ohio, it is over 10,000; in Pennsylvania, 12,000; in New York, 10,000; in New Jersey 1,500; in Delaware 180; in Connecticut 2,000; in Rhode Island 1,000; in New Hampshire 6,000; in Michigan the majority is also large for the Democratic ticket.

Tennessee is claimed by both parties—tho returns, however, seem to be most favorable to the Scott ticket.

A despatch from New Orleans says that the Whigs give up Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama.

Scott has carried Kentucky by a majority of 2000; Massachusetts by 5000; and Vermont by a small majority.

The following despatch is from the office of the Washington Union:

[Telegraphed for the N. C. Standard.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4, 8 o'clock P. M.

Accounts from every quarter show large Democratic gains. Scott has not obtained a majority in any State, but he has Vermont and Massachusetts by a plurality; and altogether only eighteen Electoral votes.

The Baltimore Sun of Wednesday contains returns from Maryland, Pennsylvania, New York, Massachusetts, N. Hampshire, Connecticut, Maine, Vermont, Rhode Island, Michigan, Delaware, Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Louisiana. The Sun gives Vermont, Massachusetts, and Kentucky to Scott, and considers Tennessee doubtful. Pierce gains 1,000 in New Orleans.

We give below a despatch from Petersburg, which contains the latest news from Virginia:

[Telegraphed for the N. C. Standard.]

PETERSBURG, Nov, 4, 3 o'clock, P. M.

Petersburg, Norfolk, Powhatan, Charlotte, Elizabeth City, King William, Louisa, and Chesterfield give Pierce 1,448 majority. Richmond City and Dinwiddie give Scott 859 majority.

The above shows a gain, as compared with Cass's vote, of 947. The returns come in slowly. The majority in Virginia for Pierce will be large.

TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION.

The Democrats of this City had a torchlight procession on Monday night last, which was characterized by the best spirit and the highest enthusiasm. A meeting of the Club was first held in the Court-House, which was briefly addressed by the Hon. James C. Dobbin, Democratic State Elector; after which the procession was formed and calls were made at Yarbrough's for the Hon. Green W. Caldwell and W. W. Avery, Esq., both of whom responded. The crowd called next on Forney George, Esq., at Lawrence's, who spoke briefly; next they visited the residence of Mr. Hutchins, and called out William Lander and J. H. Wheeler, Esquires, of Lincoln. The procession then marched to Guion's Hotel, where the Hon. Weldon N. Edwards responded to their calls and cheers; after which they marched to the residences of A. G. Drake and James B. Shepard, Esquires, and of Hon. R. M. Saunders. They next marched to the Standard office, and then to the residence of Perrin Busbee, Esq.; next to the Court House, where brief speeches were delivered by Gen. Singeltary, and by William E. Hill, J. H. Dobson, and Alfred Scales, Jr. Esquires. Loud and hearty cheers were given when opposite the residences of Maj. Clarke and Mr. Courts, and at other points; and cheer upon cheer went up for the ladies. All the speeches were full of spirit and in good taste.

It was an occasion long to be remembered by the sterling Democracy of Raleigh, and by the Democratic members of Assembly who took part in these rejoicings over anticipated victories.

☞ Three cheers for the Old Fields precinct in Nash County—one of the truest and soundest precincts in the thirty-one States! The vote there on Tuesday last, was Pierce 225, Scott !

Dr. Cartwright, of New Orleans, recommends a residence in a sugar house during the rolling season, as a remedy for chronic ailments of the chest, throat and stomach, the vapor being most agreeable and soothing to the lungs.

WILMINGTON.

We gather the following interesting statistics in relation to the trade of Wilmington, from a reliable source. Extract of a Letter dated,

WILMINGTON, Nov. 2, 1852.

"The statistics you ask for are not easily obtained as there is no record of our coasting exports or imports kept. The following is the number of foreign entries and clearances for the year ending the 30th of June, 1852, as taken from the books of the Custom House:

Entered, 39 Foreign Vessels, 7310 tons.
" 67 American do. 11835 "
Cleared, 75 Foreign Vessels, 14095 tons.
" 152 American do. 27931 "

These vessels sailed principally, West Indies, South America, England, Spain, and Germany.

The nearest approach to the value of our exports coastwise is perhaps found in the amount of exchange brought by the Banks in this place, which was about two and a half million dollars; if we add to this about a quarter or half million sold to merchants we have an approximation to the exports of Wilmington; this does not include the exports of Fayetteville shipped through this place. The total number of vessels arriving and departing is about 800 annually, and is steadily increasing in number and size at the rate of near 10 per cent. annually. Vessels load at our wharves to 12 feet and proceed to sea.

You will perceive that the number of vessels arriving from foreign countries is greatly less than the number clearing for foreign countries; that is, we do not import near as much from them as we ship to them. The reason is that we have been so isolated from the balance of the State that we had no market for the produce of foreign countries; but our Rail Roads and other improvements will remedy that drawback to our business in time."

For the Standard.

MR. HOLDEN: I send you for publication a copy of a Card which I forwarded to the National Era as soon as my attention was called to the occurrence to which it relates. The names of several gentlemen, of the Whig and Democratic party, I have no doubt, have been used without their knowledge; but as the matter has been published, and my attention directed to it, I deem it proper to give my disapprobation of their proceedings a similar newspaper existence, so that no man, here or elsewhere, now or hereafter, may infer from my silence that I countenanced the movement.

Respectfully,

J. C. DOBBIN.

RALEIGH, Nov. 2, 1852.

To the Editor of the National Era: I write to ask at your hands an act of justice. On yesterday a friend called my attention to a publication in your paper, purporting to be the proceedings of a Freesoil Convention held in October last, at New Salem, Randolph County, N. C., for the purpose of nominating Electors favorable to the principles of the Freesoil party and the election of Mr. John P. Hale to the Presidency. Whether such meeting was actually held, or whether the alleged proceedings were sent to you as a hoax, I know not. But I was astonished to find my name placed on the ticket as Elector. It was done, sir, without my consent, knowledge, or approbation. In North Carolina the public need no denial of my having countenanced this proceeding; but, as you have published it in your paper, no doubt because you took it for granted that such a Convention was really held, and perhaps with the consent of gentlemen whose names are mentioned, I most respectfully request you to publish this Card, which I deem proper for my vindication.

Respectfully,

J. C. DOBBIN.

RESISTANCE TO RIDICULE. Learn from the earliest days to inure your principles against the perils of ridicule; you can no more exercise your reason if you live in the constant dread of laughter, than you can enjoy your life if you are in the constant terror of death. If you think it right to differ from the times, and to make a stand for any valuable point of morals, do it, however rustic, however antiquated, however pedantic it may appear; do it, not for insolence, but seriously and grandly—as a man who wore a soul of his own in his bosom, and did not wait till it was breathed in him by the breath of fashion.

SYDNEY SMITH.

Arrival of the Pacific—Four days later from Europe.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1, a. m. The American mail-steamer Pacific arrived here this morning with four days later advice from Europe. Her dates are to the 20th ult. She brings 120 passengers.

The steamer City of Glasgow arrived at Liverpool on the 19th ult.

ENGLAND. The Queen held a court and privy council at Windsor Castle on Saturday, at which Parliament was ordered prorogued from the 21st October to the 4th November.

Mr. Ingersoll, the American minister, had an audience with the Queen on Saturday, the 16th. He presented his credentials in due form.

The subject of reviving the Coronation Church in England is producing much excitement in the religious circles.

Considerable remittances of gold were again being made from London to the continent, caused by the recent increase in imports in produce, owing to the late rise in prices.

FRANCE. A decree has been published convoking the Senate on the 4th November.

The resignation of Persigney, the Minister of the Interior of France, is much talked of, and the belief is it will take place. It is further said he will be appointed to a higher post in the future imperial household. When Louis Napoleon returns to Paris, it is said, that if, after the deliberations of the Senate, the form of the French government shall be changed, the result will be submitted to the people, and a legislative body will be appointed to ascertain the regularity of the votes, and declare the result on the entry of Napoleon into Paris, which is to be celebrated with magnificent eclat. A Paris correspondent of the London Globe says Napoleon's marriage with the Princess Vassa is a settled fact.

The general tendency of affairs in France continues decidedly towards the establishment of an empire, which it is thought will soon take place. Quietness, however, and harmony continue to prevail, and Napoleon is rapidly growing more and more into public favor. The great mass of the people seem anxious to crown him emperor.

The speculative mania in Paris continues to increase. In some cases interest at the rate of 110 per cent. had actually been paid to carry on transactions from one settlemeent to another.

TURKEY. Abdel Kader, the Arab chief, has been liberated, and is to receive a pension from the French government.

The reduction of the army and an amnesty are talked of.

The Sultan of Turkey has refused to ratify the Turkish loan.

Funeral services in honor of the Duke of Wellington were celebrated at Verona on the 12th of October.

A change has occurred in the Turkish cabinet, which is now quite tinctured with Austrian and Russian sentiments.

SPAIN. The Spanish court had received a despatch from the captain-general of Cuba, dated 14th September, announcing that all was quiet in his dominions. The steamer Astorio De Sellos was to be immediately despatched in place of the Pizarro.

MARKETS. The Liverpool cotton market was without material change, though not quite so firm, in consequence of the advices brought out by the Africa, which arrived at Liverpool on Sunday afternoon, 16th ult. The sales of cotton, for the three days, were 33,000 bales. The official quotations are: Fair Orleans, 6¾; middling do., 6d.; fair uplands and Mobile, 6¼d.; middling do., 5⅞. The Havre cotton market steady, but not active.

Breadstuffs. Flour was without material change. Some circulars quote it firm at previous prices, whilst others represent rather a languid market. There is, however, no quotable change to notice in prices—Baltimore and Philadelphia, 22s 3d. per bbl. The supply of wheat is good, and the market is scarcely so firm, but no change in prices. Indiana corn is firm, and in good demand at previous quotation. Corn meal unchanged.

STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY. We are happy to announce the successful formation of the above society. On Monday afternoon, the 18th, in Raleigh, it was regularly organized, and our townsman John S. Dancey elected President. As the representative of Edgecombe, and one of the vanguard of her improvements, Mr. Dancey richly deserved the honorable post. His heart has warmly espoused the cause, and we are sure his energies will be faithfully directed to the execution of the trust so complimentarily conferred. As we shall publish the full proceedings in our next, it is needless to say more.

Arrival of the Black Warrior.—Highly important from Cuba.—Arrival of Judge Conklin, Minister to Mexico.—Interview with the Captain-General.—Partial Arrangement of the recent Difficulties regarding the Crescent City, &c.—Concessions of the Captain-General.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 1. The Picayune has advices of the arrival of the steamer Black Warrior, from New York via Havana, at Mobile yesterday morning, after a run from Havana of nine hours.

The United States steamer Powhatan, from New York, having on board Judge Conklin, the newly-appointed minister to Mexico, arrived at Havana.

Judge Conklin, soon after landing, had an interview with the captain-general in relation to the recent troubles between the two governments touching the landing of the Crescent City. At this interview the difficulties were so arranged that the steamer Crescent City shall hereafter be allowed to land her mails and passengers; but Mr. Smith, the purser, will not be permitted to come on shore.

The captain-general also acknowledged to Commodore Newton, of the Powhatan, that he acted too hastily, and was willing to make suitable apology to the American government; but in no case would he allow Mr. Smith, the purser, to land on the island.

[Correspondence of the Standard.]

BEAUFORT, Oct. 27, 1852.

The Schooner Julia Frances arrived at this port on the 25th inst. from St. Pierre, Martinique, in charge of Mr. James Beverage, who went out in the vessel as mate. Mr. B. reports the loss by sickness of the Captain and two of the crew. The former, Mr. Francis Thompson, a native of England, but for many years past a resident of this place and a worthy citizen, died at St. Pierre, of disease of the liver, leaving a deeply afflicted widow and two children in this place. Three days after the vessel had sailed for the United States, Lawrence Ward, a young man of promise, aged about 20 years, son of Mr. James Ward, of this place, died of typhus fever; and three days after this Samuel Waterson, aged 22 years, a native of the Isle of Man, breathed his last with the same disease.

A voyage more disastrous to the crew of the vessel has seldom been made from this port. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Ward and others in their afflicting bereavement.

LAST WORDS OF WEBSTER. Daniel Webster, (says the Pennsylvanian,) a short time before his death, called his confidential friend, Peter Harvey, Esq., of Boston, to him, and asked him whether Rufus Choate intended supporting Scott. Mr. Harvey answered, "I do not know, but think not." "Well," said the lamented Webster, "Choate has youth and talents, and tell him from me not to mar his future prospects by taking a step in support of Scott; and tell him, as my dying message to him, that after the 2d day of November next, the whig party, as a national party, will exist only in history"

The name of the highly respectable gentleman who vouches for the truth of the above is left at this office.

A VERY LOW TRICK. A Whig ticket, with Scott electors, was yesterday used by the Whigs to entrap Whigs whose conscience would not allow them to vote for Scott. It is headed, "Republican Whig Ticket: For President Millard Fillmore of New York. For Vice President, William A. Graham of North Carolina." We hear from good authority, that the leaders of the Scott party were yesterday seduously engaged in humbuging the green anti-Scott Whigs into voting this full-blooded Scott ticket! Most noble party and leaders! Rich. Enq.

The ship "Frank Pierce," of 1,200 tons burden, was launched from the yard of Messrs. Ferhald and Pettigrew Portsmouth, New Hampshire, on Thursday last. The Journal says, "If the General can slip into the Presidency as neatly and smoothly as the ship glided into the water, he will have a good time of it." All reliable indications point to that result. He is "going in with a rush," and no mistake.

A LONG TUNNEL. One of the longest tunnels in the world is now approaching completion. It is situated in Hungary, and leads from the shore of the river Gran, not far from Zarnowitz to the mines in the Schemnitzer Hills. It is about ten English miles long, and is intended to answer the double purpose of a channel to drain off the water accumulating in the works, and of a railway to transport the ore from the mines on the river.

To Millers and Lumbermen.

TESTIMONY OF A MILL-WRIGHT.

Barton's Creek, near Parker's Bridge.
Oct. 27, 1852.

Mr. O. CHILD—Dear Sir: I have now had my Mill in operation one week, and am much pleased with it; I have tried it in dry and green timber, and the saws manifest no inclination to heat whatever, and I am confident it will cut double the lumber, with one half the water of an up and down Mill. In fact I can now cut two thousand feet per day, on a stream too small to run an up and down Mill at all. And the setting apparatus works admirably and fully justifies the statement in your circular of saving one hand.

This is just the Mill for small streams requiring much less power than any Mill I have ever seen.

Mr. Childs may be found at his office in the rear of Tate & Co's store, on Fayetteville street.

M. SATER.

Two Mills received and for sale by O. Child, in the city.

FEMALE CLASSICAL INSTITUTE.

HILLSBOROUGH STREET.

THE Annual Examination of the Pupils of this Institution will take place the first week in December next, beginning on Wednesday, and ending on Friday evening.

The first session for 1853, will begin on the first Monday in January.

The patronage extended to the Institute, has induced the present proprietor to adopt measures for its permanent establishment on the basis of a thorough and extensive course of female education.

The several departments are filled by highly competent instructors.

As the number boarding in the Institute is limited, early application may be necessary to ensure admittance.

VALUABLE MILLS FOR SALE.

THE NEUSE RIVER OIL MILLS, about 9½ miles Northwest from the City of Raleigh, and three miles from the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road, and about thirty acres of land attached, lying on both sides of Neuse River, will be sold at the Court House door on the 3rd Monday of November next, being the 15th day of the month.

These MILLS have undergone extensive repairs during the present year, and are now in excellent running order. The machinery of the OIL MILLS is of the most improved kind, and they will easily produce 10,000 gallons of cotton seed, flax seed, or castor oil per annum. There is also one of Carver's largest size cotton gins attached and a cotton screw.

The GRIST MILLS, running two pairs of stones, have a large and steady custom.

The SAW MILL, entirely new, running with Hotchkiss' wheels, is surpassed by very few in the country, while there is no difficulty in selling on the yard, every foot of timber they can cut.

A rare opportunity is presented for a safe investment in a profitable business.

Further information will be given on application to the Superintendent at the Mills, or to

NOVELTY WORKS,

WEST ST., RALEIGH, NORTH-CAROLINA,

SILAS BURNS, PROPRIETOR,

BUILDER OF

Steam Engines & General Machinist.

THE above establishment has been in successful operation about one year, and has turned out some of the best STEAM ENGINES and SAW MILLS that have ever operated in this or any other State.

Orders are solicited for Steam Engines and Saw Mills, Mill Gearing and Machinery of every discription to be completed during the Summer and Fall. The improved condition of the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road will enable me to fill with dispatch and punctuality all orders after the 1st of July.

The following certificate will show the character of the work executed at the above Works:

AUBRY, Cumberland, May 15, 1852.

Mr. SILAS BURNS,

Dear Sir: Our Engine and Mills, made at your shops, have been at work nearly two months, and fully meet our expectations. The ENGINE, as to FINISH and STRENGTH, PERFORMANCE and DURABILITY, is inferior to none in the State of the same class made here or elsewhere. The MILLS run with a smoothness and speed truly astonishing. In ordinary sawing we cut in a common sized log, 1 foot in 3½ seconds or 16 feet per minute. We have run, however, through an 18 feet log in 32 seconds or at the rate of 33 feet per minute, by running to the top speed we fully believe we can cut 40 feet per minute. The only objection we have heard urged is, it takes two many hands to haul up logs and carry away lumber. Yours, &c.,

JONES & BARBEE.

FRANKLIN INSTITUTE,

CEDAR ROCK, FRANKLIN COUNTY, N. C.

D. S. RICHARDSON, Principal.

Castalia Female Institute,

CASTALIA, NASH, N. C.

Mrs. M. C. Richardson, *Principal.

THE Fall Terms will commence on the first Monday in July, and close on the 1st Friday in December.

Mr. Richardson has purchased a residence, and considers himself as permanently located at CASTALIA.

The Schools will be under the immediate supervision of himself and lady, under one and the same body of Trustees.

The Female School is near the Franklin line, three miles from the Male, a distance favorable to the seclusion and success of both Institutions.

Mrs. R., who has latterly taught at Belford, has a celebrity which no comment of ours could affect.

A large, neat edifice similar to that of the Male Institution is contracted for, and will be erected immediately. Meanwhile students will be accomodated in the Ly. Academy, known formerly as Pleasant Hill. In short, the Trustees would assure their patrons, that they will carefully consider everything and deem nothing unimportant, which will contribute effectually to the consummation of their educational enterprise, rendering the Institutions all that enlightened and Christian parents could desire for their children.

Board, including washing and Fuel, $6½ per month. For further particulars address the Principals or

JNO. ADAMS HARRISON.
Secretary of the Board of Trustees,

At the Female Inst., Messrs. James and Jno. Adams Harrison are prepared to accomodate boarders. Board can also be obtained of the Principal, after the coming session.

A Splendid Farm & Residence for Sale

IN THE COUNTY OF FRANKLIN.

THE Subscriber, wishing to remove and devote his time to his profession, offers for sale, his Farm, lying on both sides of the road, leading from Louisburg to Warrenton, three miles from the former place, twelve miles from Jones' White Sulphur Springs and 15 from Shocco. The Tract contains as can be found in the county, in a high state of cultivation, and admirably adapted to the successful culture of the best Tobacco, Cotton, Corn, Wheat, &c. The plantation is nearly equally divided by a never failing stream, irrigating about 3000 acres of as rich land as avarice could desire. The upland is agreeably diversified by hill and dale, easily cultivated, and very productive. In fact there are few locations in North Carolina offering as many inducements to the intelligent agriculturist as this. The improvements consist of a large and commodious MANSION HOUSE containing 9 rooms, well built, and in excellent order, enshrined in a beautiful grove of magnificent oaks, every necessary out house, Tobacco Barns, Stables, Carriage-house, negro houses, brick spring house, and a Spring, at whose gushing fountain, Hygeia herself might delight to linger. Situated in a high, healthful region of country, abounding in the best and purest of water, in a neighborhood proverbial for intelligence, refinement, and morality; convenient to the famous Male and Female Schools, of Louisburg, it is believed this location is unsurpassed in this region of the "Old North State."

1500 Acres of as good Land

The Subscriber invites the attention of persons wishing to purchase, assuring them, that the terms shall be satisfactory. PETER S. FOSTER,

"Eagle Hotel," Chapel Hill, for Sale

THE Proprietress of this well known and profitable establishment, having realized a sufficient income to warrant her in resuming the quiet of a private life, offers to the public generally the opportunity of bidding for its advantages.

The citizens of the State are so well acquainted with the advantages of its position, that but few remarks are necessary to complete their information.

The Hotel itself possesses all the requirments of room and comfort, which its purchasers can desire. It has capacity for the accommodation of one hundred and fifty boarders, and the recent and rapid growth of the University, adjacent, makes it an easy matterto possess such or even a greater number of students.

In addition to this, the frequent travel through Chapel Hill gives the Hotel, (being the only one in the place) a transient custom equal to any in the State.

The lots and stables adjoining are extensive and commodious, and the country-market supplies abundantly and on profitable terms much of its provisions.

The terms of sale require one third of the price to be paid on taking possession. A note, with safe security and time of payment suited to the convenience of the purchaser, are the reasonable demands for the remainder.

If further information be desired concerning the inducements to purchase, the President of the University or any other resident of the village, will furnish it.

Possession can be obtained at any time, after the 1st of May. Apply to ANNE S. HILLIARD.

A GOOD OPENING.

Hotel for Sale in Franklinton, N. C.

THE Subscriber offers his Public House and premises, in the town of Franklinton, Franklin County, N. C., for sale. This Establishment is situated on the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road, which will, when the Central Rail Road is finished, be the main thorough fare from North to South. This is the only Public House in the place, and presents inducements rarely met with in any other village. It has been an eating House for passengers for the last four or five years, who have for some time past been eating twice a day; and I have not the least doubt but it will be kept up as an eating House. The House is large and tolerably conveniently arranged for the business, and has lately undergone considerable repairs. I would give a good bargain in this place. My only inducement in wishing to dispose of this place, is, that I am worn out in the good cause of feeding people, having been in the business for the last 12 or 14 years. If I should not sell by the 1st day of December, I would rent or lease. Persons wishing to engage in this business would do well to apply soon. JAS. I. THOMAS.
